Speaker Bio

Gerard Grogans is a transformational speaker trainer, coach, author, and Army veteran who helps ordinary people become extraordinary speakers—one story at a time. With more than 25 years of leadership, training, and coaching experience, he helps audiences remove the mental blocks holding them back, turn life experiences into teachable moments, and communicate with confidence, clarity, and authority. Through his Transformational Story Method™, Gerard teaches people how to find their voice, own their identity, and transform their message into meaningful impact.
